Miss M. Edwards,
The Publishers Association,
19, Bedford Square,
London, W.C.1.

Dear Miss Edwards,

I shall turn up at 6 o'clock at the Stationers' Hall on April 21st. I don't suppose I have to tell you yet whether I will bring any guests or not.

I, myself, am apprehensive because you say "if a little apprehensive" - was I too awful?

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Rebecca Forester-Walker

her absence).
